Biography

Amárach is Perth's exciting new folk band, premiering at Fringe 2024 to a stellar sold-out show and subsequent repeat performances. Amárach, (translating to "tomorrow" in Gaelic) aims to bring traditional Celtic and modern folk arrangements into the public music sphere. Featuring voice, harp, guitar / banjo, fiddle, flute / whistle and percussion. This group will be sure to have you swooning to mystic melodies, toe-tapping to jigs and reels and singing along to well-known tunes from the Celtic isles.

Fauré Requiem

Friday 15 November, 7.30pm

Saturday 16 November, 2pm & 7.30pm

Wesley Church

The student choirs of Aquinas College, John Septimus Roe Anglican Community School, Scotch College and St George's College UWA combine for an unforgettable performance of Fauré's Requiem.

2024 marks the 100th anniversary since the death of the beloved composer, and what a beautiful to celebrate the legacy of this famed pedagogue, having over one hundred students learn and sing his music.

The concert, curated by UCIC Artist in Residence Alessandro Pittorino, will feature other French music, in the peaceful setting of Wesley Church in the heart of Perth City.
